BRELO - UUSIKUU

The kantele ensemble Brelo comes from the tiny village of Laukkoski in southern Finland and was officially formed in 2003. The group is open-minded about using different types of kanteles. Uusikuu is Brelo's third album with new compositions, as well as arrangements of traditional songs. Brelo's music is firmly grounded in tradition, but the young players have their eyes fixed on the future – two qualities that define Brelo's original and fresh sound. The artistic director of the group is kantele player Vilma Timonen.

Members of Brelo are: Mirkku Kauhanen, Anna-Reetta Kohonen, Eeva-Kaisa Kohonen, Valtteri Lehto, Janiina Mattila, Essi Olkanen, Hanna Olkanen, Sini Olkanen.

This CD has been released with support from The Finnish Performing Music Promotion Centre (ESEK).
