POLKA CHICKS – S/T

Polka Chicks - the Band of the Year of Kaustinen Folk Music Festival 2009 releases their self-titled debut album 20.7.2009

Polka Chicks play folk music with an open attitude towards all music and a stylish groove. Inspired by Finnish traditional polkas the band initially started playing together at the Sibelius Academy Folk Music Department in 2004. During the years their repertoire has spread to include all sorts of traditional folk music as well as beautiful songs mostly written by the band's musicians. Nowadays their repertoire consists of own compositions and traditional folk music from all over Scandinavia.

In addition to their performances in Finland Polka Chicks have performed in USA, Europe and Russia.
