ILONA KORHONEN ENSEMBLE – TARKKA PÄÄ, TANIA MIELI

Ilona Korhonen Ensemble's debut album "Tarkka pää, tania mieli" was released on the 13th of April 2009. "Tarkka pää, tania mieli" is Ilona Korhonen's composition for seventeen female voices. The composition is based on the texts of Larin Paraske – the most renown Ingrian runo-singer of all times. The themes of the composition deal with humanity, community and solitarity.

Ilona Korhonen is a Finnish musician, composer and is currently writing a PhD in folk music at the Folk Music Department of Sibelius Academy. "Tarkka pää, tania mieli" is part of her PhD.

Ilona Korhonen Ensemble was founded in 2008 in order to perform Ilona Korhonen's compositions for female choirs. The members of the ensemble are: Riikka Ahokas, Hanni Autere, Helmi Camus, Anna Fält, Heidi Haapoja, Lotta Hagfors, Maija Kauhanen, Anna E. Karvonen, Amanda Kauranne, Ilona Korhonen, Emmi Kuittinen, Pia Rask, Juulia Salonen, Ulla Silvennoinen, Anni Tolvanen, Nora Vaura ja Emilia Kallonen.

This CD has been released with support from The Finnish Performing Music Promotion Centre (ESEK) and Foundation for the Promotion of Finnish Music (LUSES).
